To whom it may concern:

Declaration:

I, Gregory Ross, a citizen of the United States of America, declare under penalty of perjury:

I reside at 395 SW Duniway Ave., Gresham, Oregon.

My educational background related to the field of invention is Doctor of Chiropractic.

I have the following certifications related to the field of this invention:

Comprehensive Level Certification
Advanced Level Certification
First Annual Symposium Certification

I have been providing medical care and treatment to patients since 1984.

I have reviewed NMT: The Feinberg Technique, teaching the protocols of neuromodulation therapy.

The teachings and protocols taught by NMT: The Feinberg Technique, effectively teach a useful method of neuromodulation therapy as disclosed.

I have personally utilized this method in a useful manner in treating patients.

I believe that the disclosed neuromodulation therapy is useful in the health care field.

I have personally utilized the disclosed therapy to treat patients and offer the following case studies essentially using no other modality or technique:

-a woman with a history compromised discs in the lumbar spine presented with lower back pain along with radiation to the mid left lateral thigh. She rated her pain level at 10/10. The first NMT treatment session including a low force adjustment reduced her pain and symptoms to 8.5/10. Her second NMT treatment session reduced her pain and symptoms a total of 90%. A subsequent phone call for rescheduling found her too busy with yard work and other activities to return for further treatment.

-a woman presented with a uterine fibroid the width of her palm. Six NMT treatment sessions over a period of almost two years reduced the size of the fibroid to that of a walnut without any other intervention.

-a woman presented with shingles. The first NMT treatment session plus an antiviral herb reduced symptoms dramatically, but the symptoms gradually returned. During her next NMT treatment session, she described her pain and discomfort being so severe, she had contemplated committing suicide. The second NMT treatment session completely eliminated all symptoms, never to return.

I hereby declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true, and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under 18 U.S.C. 1001 and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issued thereon.
